

ANOMALY OF UNEQUAL VALIDITY PERIOD FOR VARIOUS DEVELOPMENT PERMITS PREVAILS

With reference to our press release published on 05/12/23 following the publication of a legal notice extending the validity period of permits expiring between 10th November 2023 and 31st December 2024, the Kamra tal-Periti notes that despite a positive disposition during meetings, the Government has so far failed to address the injustice that was caused for permit holders whose permits expired between 1st January 2023 and 9th November 2023.

These permit holders were, for some unknown reason, denied any extensions, while some even benefitted from two extensions totalling six years.

This situation is graphically explained below:

The Kamra, thus, urges the Government to rectify this anomaly as soon as possible.
